LETTER FROM THE CHAIRMAN OF THE BOARD

Dear IAI Members

I wish you ALL a Happy, Healthy and Prosperous New Year.

Lord Sri Rama said “Janani Janma-bhoomi-scha Swargadapi Gariyasi. That means “Mother and Motherland are greater than Heaven”. Wherever we are and whatever we do, our Mother-land India is always dear to us.

Let me thank you for electing me the Chairman of IAI Board for 2011 and giving me an opportunity to serve you. I am humbled by the trust you placed in me.

I along with members of the Board and Executive committee as well as other committees, we believe in the Mission, Vision and Values of IAI. We are grateful to all the community leaders that created and nurtured this Organization and are committed to making it stronger and vibrant. I request your advice, guidance and full support in the coming year to help us achieve our goals.

The mission of the India Association of Indianapolis is to promote cultural activities of India, to foster cultural exchange between people of India and the USA, and to carry out educational and charitable activities.

During this year, we have some ideas/plans which shall be implemented.

- Create a Strategic Plan for 5 years
- Enhance communications among the various sub-groups of Indian Community, promote relations with the community at large.
- Increase our presence and involvement in the community at large
- Increase IAI membership especially Grand Patron and Patron
- Redefine Community Services and serve, help and support our community members who may not be able to meet their daily living needs
- Continue some of the existing IAI programs like Soup Kitchen, Health Fair, etc.
- Partner with Habitat for Humanity and other similar organizations to support the community at large through increased volunteering activities
- Bring out Membership Directory which is due in 2011

LETTER FROM THE IAI PRESIDENT

Dear Friends,

Happy New Year to all!

I am greatly honored and humbled to be the president of IAI Executive Committee 2011. I have been involved with IAI for some years. When I look back over these years, it seems that things have gone smoothly and IAI has matured into a widely popular and respected organization. This is due in large part to the participation of IAI members in the events that have been coordinated by our diligent committee and board members. I am thankful to all of those who have contributed in some capacity to IAI in the past and I hope that you will continue to support IAI this year. If you have not had a chance to experience the excitement of an IAI event, please come and join us and I promise you great enjoyment.

IAI has developed into a great platform to celebrate its mission of rejoicing in Indian culture and promote cultural exchange within American communities. We plan on continuing to further IAI undertaking by holding several exciting events this year. Some of the main planned events are:

Holi Dhamaka – April 16th

(Entry form for entertainment available on page 3)

India Day – August 14th.

Diwali Gala – November 12th.

International Festival India Booth – Nov. 17th – 20th.

Please mark your calendars and save the dates for these events. As the year progresses and the new committee members become active in their respective positions, we might add more events. IAI youth group has made their presence felt in 2010 and they will continue to do so this year with several events that will give our youth a chance to mingle, enjoy, and provide community service. We will keep you updated and please log on to the IAI website for more details. I request and encourage all of you to consider participating in all IAI events at whatever level is comfortable to you.

Most of all I would like to invite each and every one of you to become members of IAI for year 2011. There are several levels of memberships available to suit your needs. Please log on to the IAI website for details. Your membership ensures that we will continually practice to celebrate our culture and traditions in a grand manner TOGETHER!
